

Madison County Citizen Corps Council
Minutes
June 14, 2007 7:00 pm
Virginia City Courthouse

Meeting call to order Melinda Tichenor	Darcie Sgrignoli- Neighborhood Watch Steve Orr- Sherriff's office Chris Mumme- DES Wayne Redfield - CERT
Minutes	Corrections "The map reading training will held the 28 th not the 20 th " Move, seconded and passed unanimously.
Financials	The budget has been presented to the commissioners for next year's CERT trainings and events. The Fair Booth has been paid for. The booth at the farmers market will be a good place to sell the raffle tickets.
CERT course –Dates	Melinda will check with Charlie Hansen to see if he will be available for the Virginia City CERT in September. We will all get the posters out.
County Planning and Trainings-	June 28 th Map reading which will be in Ennis last about 2 hr. July 26 th will be a radio training in Ennis
72 hour Kits	Turn the raffle money to Melinda and she will get them to the county bookkeeper. We will need article is the paper. The drawing will be in August at the fair.
Neighborhood Watch –was May 30 6:30	2 other people were at the meeting. Steve Orr gave a very educational presentation. It was decided to put out some PSA on local radio to get people thinking about a security checklist as a start.
Affiliate Reports	Wayne – Working on a donation of some radios for CERT to use, presented the plan of action for CERT call out. He will try to be the IC for CERT group at the Ennis Parade. Chris – working on computers and other equipment for the mobile EOC Steve – Presented the work plan for the July 4 th exercise at the Ennis Parade which will involve at least 18 CERT members Scott Peterson at the state is getting us some CERT T-shirts.
Brain storm for Ideas	We have received a letter from the Governor listing the success of the CERT program in Madison County. We need to move the stuff from the storage unit Ennis to the storage boxes in Alder. Melinda will e-mail a schedule for the fair. PIO training through the Public Health department on July 12th
Next meeting	September 13, 2007 in Ennis